

JOSEPH A. MASSEY WINS BRIDE FROM VALLEY

Widely-Known Newport News Attorney Weds Mrs. Elizabeth Faulkner Love Latane.

CEREMONY IN NEW YORK

Cards Are Received Announcing Marriage of Miss Julia Wickham Harrison to James Grover McCann. Social News From Winchester.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, Va., March 13.—The marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Faulkner Love Latane, widow of Dr. Samuel Peachy Latane and daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. William S. Love, of Winchester, to Joseph Anderson Massey, of Newport News, Va., which took place on March 8 in New York, was solemnized in the First Reformed Episcopal Church of that city, and the ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. W. B. Stevens, whose wife is a sister of the late Dr. Latane. Among those witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Willard Brown, of New York, the latter formerly Miss Mary Eliza Russell, of this city; Dr. James L. Russell and a number of other Winchester and Virginia friends now living in New York. Mr. Massey and his bride will make their future home at Newport News, where the former is engaged in the practice of law, and where he also holds the office of city solicitor. Mrs. Massey is a sister of Mrs. Kenneth W. Hudgins and Mrs. J. Wilton Hope, both of Hampton, Va.

Friends here have received announcement of the marriage of Miss Julia Wickham Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chapman Leigh Harrison, to James Grover McCann, which took place on Wednesday at "Iden," the handsome home of the bride's parents, in New Kent County, Va. A distinguished company of guests, relatives and friends of the young couple attended the wedding and the reception, which was held immediately after the ceremony.

Mrs. John T. Roddey has returned to Rock Hill, S. C., after visiting her mother, Mrs. Marshall H. G. Willis, in Winchester, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ridgely White, at Catonsville, Md.

Mrs. Richard Evelyn Ford has returned from an extended visit to relatives in Richmond and Washington.

Mrs. H. Clay Krebs has gone on a visit to her daughter, Miss Nanette L. Krebs, in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Harry K. Russell has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner W. Brown at their home in New York City.

The Misses Lee have returned to their home in Clarke County after visiting their sister, Mrs. Charles Garrett, at her home in Baltimore.

Miss Kitty McDonald, who has been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harvard Stevens, at Hockessin, N. J., has returned to her home in Clarke.

Mrs. William W. Dellinger has returned from a visit of several weeks to relatives in Wheeling, W. Va.

Mr. Gerald Culbertson, pastor of the Third Christian Church of Richmond, has been visiting friends in town this week.

Mrs. T. T. Lines, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is spending the month of March here, was the guest of relatives this week at Woodstock, Va.

Misses Frances Cline and Maggie Hodgson have returned from a visit to friends in Baltimore and New York.

Miss Florence Kremer, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore and other Eastern cities, has returned to her home here.

Miss Augusta Paul Miller has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Baltimore and Washington.

Mrs. William W. Baldwin came a few days ago from Baltimore to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wierman, near town.

Miss Gertrude Schneider has returned to Washington, after visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Jones, of Washington, have been visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider.

Miss Minnie Conrad and Miss Lou Atkey, the latter of Helena, Mont., who have been passing the winter in Florida, California and Washington, D. C., spent the week-end in town with friends. Miss Conrad and her sister, Mrs. Alexander Gilbank Twigg, the latter of Leeds Manor estate, near Markham, Va., probably will reopen "Montana Hall," the Conrad country place, near White Post, Clarke County, in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Holmes Berry have returned from Shepherdstown, W. Va., where they passed the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Reinhardt.

Miss Mary Egan, of Charlottesville, W. Va., has been the guest of the Misses Fenton at their home here.

Mrs. T. Clayton Williams has returned to this city, after spending part of the winter in Baltimore and at her home in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watts have returned to their home in Canada, after spending several months in this city.

Mrs. Eloise Moore and her children, of Vermont, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker.

Mrs. Richard Evelyn Byrd, Jr., has returned to Washington, after visiting relatives and friends in town for several days.

Mrs. R. J. Jordan has returned from a visit to friends in Baltimore.

Engagement of Virginia Belle Announced

Miss Anne Seymour Jones is the daughter of Congressman and Mrs. William A. Jones, of Virginia, and her parents have announced her engagement to Lieutenant S. Roland Hopkins, of the Third Field Artillery, U. S. A. The announcement was made recently at a buffet luncheon given by her mother, which was attended by about twenty-five of her girl friends. When the ice cream was served the portions were found to be in the form of engagement rings on which cooling doves were perched. At this time the engagement was announced to the party. No date has yet been set for the wedding, but it is expected to take place about the month of June.

FARMVILLE WEST POINT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FARMVILLE, Va., March 13.—There were two interesting recitals at the Conservatory of Music last week. Those taking part were: Misses Lurline and Elizabeth Moring, Evelyn Dinwiddie, Alma Whitlock, Virginia Turner, Thomas Dietrick, Dallas Dahl, Judith Shupate, Lucy Parks, Marie Garnett, Parkelle Munday, Cornelia Shannon, Edna Edmore, Ruth Garnett and Master Sam Giddin. Those participating in the contest were Misses Garnett, Palmetto, Watson, Marie Bennett, Isadore Gills. The winners were Misses Ann Richardson and Eddie Lee Watson.

The Philanthropic Class of the Farmville Baptist Church held a brilliant reception in the church on Tuesday evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The decorations, which were most artistic, were carried out in white and green. The guests were received by Mrs. R. L. Hudgins assisted by Miss Edna Putney. After an interesting program, consisting of games and contests, dainty refreshments were served.

Little Miss Louise Schmidt was hostess at an attractive party given in honor of her seventh birthday on Saturday. Many of her little friends attended.

Mr. Gills has accepted a position with the Buick Motor Company, at City Point. H. W. Edmunds is on a visit to friends in Florida.

Mrs. W. W. Barrow has returned, after spending some time in Richmond. Mrs. Edna Bonduant and daughter, Mrs. Will Vaughan, of Rice, have been the guests of Mrs. John Overton.

Mrs. Adams, of Lynchburg, has returned to her home, after a pleasant stay with Mrs. Lambeth.

Mrs. J. D. Watkins, of Rocky Mount, N. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. M. Bugg.

Mrs. V. P. Paulett leaves this week for an extended stay with her home people in Donora, Pa.

Dr. Hibbett, formerly of Nashville, Tenn., who has made his home here for the past twelve months, has gone to Norfolk for treatment in the Naval Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. McCredy have gone to make their home in Roanoke.

Miss Marguerite Watkins, of St. Luke's Hospital, Richmond, is visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. A. D. Watkins.

Mrs. T. P. Robertson is at home, after visiting her sister, Mrs. M. A. Book, at Prospect.

Mrs. J. J. Powell has returned, after a visit to her home in Oxford, N. C.

Miss Mary Nanny has returned from a delightful stay at South Hill.

Mrs. R. E. Rohrer, of Wellville, is visiting her daughter here.

Mrs. James A. Davidson is the guest of friends in Richmond.

V. P. I.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BLACKSBURG, Va., March 13.—Examinations began on Thursday and will continue until March 20, the last day of the second term. While these are going on classes are suspended and only the military routine goes on. Public entertainments and students' affairs are also given up during examinations.

The cotillion club has chosen April 6 and 7 as the dates for its Easter dances, and the german club will entertain the last three nights of Easter week.

Mrs. Bolton McBryde was hostess at an informal reception for the members of one of the Bible study classes on Saturday night, when a number of young women from town and college were present. Classes for Bible study are a feature of the Young Men's Christian Association work in the school, and more than the usual number of students have been enrolled this year. From time to time the women of the faculty entertain these classes, in this way co-operating with the secretary of the association in his efforts along this line.

On account of a severe cold, President Eggleston was unable to attend the meetings of the State Board of Education and Live Stock Sanitary Commission in Richmond this week. T. B. Hutcheson, of the agronomy department, and W. J. Price, assistant State entomologist, were in Richmond on business connected with their department.

A. S. Jewett, associate professor of rhetoric, was called to New York this week by the death of a relative.

T. O. Sandy, of Burkeville, chief demonstration agent for Virginia, was a visitor at the college on Thursday.

IVOR

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
IVOR, Va., March 13.—Miss Sallie Holmes is visiting Mrs. P. D. Taylor. Miss Alice Rogers, of Dendron, was a recent guest of Mrs. J. L. Pulley.

Mrs. J. W. Reams, of Isle of Wight, spent Sunday at her home here.

Miss Edna Watkins has returned from a visit to Franklin.

Miss Mina Wills, of Sedley, was a visitor in town on Sunday.

Mrs. Fenton Beale was a recent guest of Mrs. J. C. Pulley.

The address at the Baptist Church on Sunday by Rev. Mr. Logan, a missionary from South America, in the interest of the Judson memorial fund, was one of the notable lectures of the year, and was heard by a large audience.

The question, "Resolved, That the United States should pursue a course of armed intervention toward the warring factions in Mexico" was ably discussed on both sides by students in the high school on Friday evening. The debaters on the affirmative were Paul Brantley, Robert Rayle and Thelma Mitchell; negative, Elsie Stuart, Eunice Clayton and Clara Mitchell. The judges declared in favor of the affirmative.

MANASSAS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MANASSAS, Va., March 13.—Mrs. Katherine Francis, of Manassas, was taken to Sibley Hospital, in Washington, on Monday, and Tuesday an operation was performed.

Rev. J. K. Hammond, of Culpeper, addressed the Episcopal congregation at Trinity Church last evening. Rev. J. Park, the local rector, preached at Culpeper.

The board of directors of the National and People's Banks held business meetings this week.

T. F. Thompson, of Washington, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Davies. Mrs. Thompson has been visiting here since Saturday.

Martha Strother, of Markham, was the guest of friends in Manassas and Bristow this week.

Charles Whitmer, United States Navy, is visiting his father J. C. Whitmer.

Dr. John C. Gordon, of Nokesville, visited his brother, Bryan Gordon on Monday.

Miss Sallie Larkin, daughter of Mrs. Mollie Larkin, is quite ill.

Mrs. Isaac Shacklett, of Washington, was a guest at the home of her father, W. J. Walker, this week.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Larsen, who for ten days had been a patient at Sibley Hospital, in Washington, returned home this week.

THALHIMER BROTHERS

Where Things are What They Seem

Gowns of Distinctive Individuality

To-Morrow we feature a collection of very Smart Dresses for Afternoon, Street and Dinner Wear as well as for the Dance. Every Fashionable Spring Shade Represented.

Street and Afternoon Dresses

Crepe de Chine and Meteor Dresses, in all new shades, full flare skirts, chiffon combination trimming. A large assortment of styles at these prices,
$15 and $17.50

Attractive Street Dresses, in taffeta and crepe; also, large showing of Party Dresses, all shades, of taffeta and meteor,
$20 and $25

Exclusive models in Taffeta, "Rodier" Voile in all shades, Georgette Crepes, Black Net and Evening Gowns, all late models,
$35 and $40

Many Effective and Smart Models Featured in the New Suit Arrivals

Novelty check and poplins, in all new shades; ripple coats and Norfolk; all late models,
$15 and $17.50

We have faithful copies of such makers as "Jean," "Madam Frances," "Hickson" and "Stein & Blain." New York's best tailors. These come in the season's latest colors and fabrics,
$45 and $50

Attractive styles in silk poplins, fancy check, serges and gabardines, all copies of high grade Suits; excellent tailoring and finish,
$20 and $25

Exclusive models in men's wear serge, gabardines and silk faille; all copies of late imported models; exquisite linings and workmanship,
$35 and $40

Top Coats

Very Smart and Inexpensive Models

In fancy check covert, golfene and gabardine; all late styles,
$12.50 and $15.00

Novelty Coats, in check voile, silk faille and coverts,
$20.00 and $25.00

Children's, Junior's and Misses' Apparel

For Spring

Representative Assemblage at Our Usual Moderate Prices for This Week

We Specially Feature

Misses' Smart Dresses

For Morning and Afternoon Wear

These are shown in an extensive variety of attractive models. Made of French and ramie linen, wool challies, white serge, embroidered voiles, silk poplins and taffetas. These come in all the new and wanted shades, and range in price from $5 to $15

Small Children's Dresses

2 to 6 Year Size

Extremely smart styles, shown in the White Lingerie, daintily and attractively trimmed with laces; many smart models on display, ranging in price from
$2 to $7.48

Misses' & Girls' Spring Coats

More attractive this season than ever before.

MISSES' SLIP-ON COATS, Of tweeds, diagonal serge, covert cloth, fancy white plaid chinchilla. Military effects, convertible collars, mannish pockets; sizes 8 to 15 years. Prices from
$5 to $12.50

Coats for Small Children

2 to 6 Year Sizes---Exclusive Models

Shown in shepherd checks, imported wool Bedfords, imported coverts, imported diagonals, French serges, wash corduroys, piques and taffetas. These handsome little Coats range in price from
$3 to $10

Man-Tailored Reefers

For the Little Men

In navy serge, covert cloth and shepherd check; some made in the belt-back styles. Prices,
$3.98 and $4.98

Stamped Guest Towels

Of fine quality Terry and Huck; 14x24-inch size. Shown with PINK, BLUE, GOLD AND LAVENDER BORDERS

Two beautiful models on Display.

Just 20 dozen in the assortment, which we place on sale to-morrow at the remarkable low price of 10c

On sale in Art Department

Furnishings for the Home

Five Compelling Values for Monday's Selling

Fancy Border Scrim Curtains, $1.19 Window

Dutch Scrim Curtains, fancy border, with deep Valance; 2 1/2 yards long. Regular value $1.69, special price $1.19 window.

Armstrong's Cork Linoleum, 39c

Heavy Corn Linoleum, attractive patterns; 2 yards wide; regular value 50c, special price, 39c square yard.

Long Rope Portieres, $3.69

Heavy Velour Cords, wide tapestry bands, 11 cords, large tassels and ruffs, double festoon draping; large assortment to select from. Regular value $5.00, special price $3.69.

Wemple's Opaque Shades, 23c

Superior Opaque Window Shades, 3 ft by 6 ft; mounted on good spring rollers; fixtures complete, ready to hang. Regular value 30c, special price 23c.

Door Mats, 59c

Heavy Rubber Door Mats, beveled edge; size 18x36 inches. Thick Cocoa Door Mats, good brush, size 19x27 inches. Regular value 89c; special price, 59c. No mail orders accepted on this item.

For You, Mr. "Man"

We have available for Monday's selling 15 dozen Fruit of the Loom NIGHT ROBES.

Guaranteed full cut; neat, fast color, braid trimming; sizes 14 to 19.

The regular selling price of this garment the world over is 75c, and even more; specially priced at 50c

THALHIMER BROTHERS